Katy Cleary Joins Crescent Real Estate as a Leasing Manager

FORT WORTH, TX – Crescent Real Estate Equities, LLC is pleased to announce the addition of Katy Cleary to the company. Cleary is the latest addition to the Dallas Leasing Team, where she is taking on the role of leasing manager.

“Katy adds a very energetic, well rounded background in real estate to the team,” said Mike Lewis, managing director of Crescent Real Estate. “Her professional approach and enthusiastic attitude are contagious.”

She will be working with Kirby White, director of leasing, on leasing Trammell Crow Center and Crescent’s Dallas Portfolio. “Katy is a strong addition to our Dallas team and is a perfect fit for our leasing needs at this time. Just as important, she also fits the Crescent team culture perfectly,” said White.

Most recently, Cleary was a broker with the Capital Markets Group of The Staubach Company. As a part of the Net Lease division she managed investment sales transactions from listing to close, solicited new business and performed asset valuations and lease reviews. Prior to The Staubach Company, Cleary was with Cushman & Wakefield, Macfarlan Real Estate Investment Management, Insignia/ESG and Archon Group. Cleary graduated from Trinity University in San Antonio, TX with a B.S. in Business Administration with concentrations in Finance and Accounting.

She is a licensed real estate salesperson and a member of Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW), the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC).
